

ONLY NECESSARY TO TREAT THE STOMACH, SAYS COOPER

The new theory advanced by L. T. Cooper relative to the human stomach has attracted such widespread attention that the public in cities visited by him has been joined by many physicians in a discussion of his beliefs and medicines.

Mr. Cooper says that human health is dependent almost entirely upon the stomach. He says that no disease can be conquered without first alleviating all stomach disorders. He further says that most men and women of this generation are half-sick, owing to degenerate stomachs. And, lastly, he claims that his New Discovery medicine will rejuvenate the human stomach in a few weeks' time.

Cooper has been traveling from one city to another, conducting in each what he calls a campaign of education. For the past year he has met the public in the larger cities of the country, and his success has been phenomenal. Thousands of people have flocked to his headquarters wherever he has gone, and the sale of his medicine has been beyond anything of the kind ever before witnessed.

Possibly the most interesting feature of the attention Cooper has attracted is what his army of followers, whom he has converted to his beliefs through his medicines, have to say on the subject.

The following unsolicited endorsement comes from J. L. Turk, living at 315 Locust Street, Vincennes, Ind., whose statement is characteristic of thousands received from persons living in all parts of the country.

Mr. Turk is well known throughout the Ohio and Mississippi valleys. He is now 68 years of age, and claims his general health is better than for some time past.

"For several years," says Mr. Turk, "I suffered from stomach trouble. I was in a badly weakened and run-down condition. After eating I would bloat, and be in pain and distress for several hours. All at once I began to feel better. I had no energy nor ambition whatever. This condition continued for a long time, although I took treatment from several good physicians, and tried a number of patent remedies without relief.

"On reading of Mr. Cooper's theory I became convinced that he was right, so I procured several bottles of his New Discovery preparation in order to test his claims. It afforded prompt relief, and when I had taken three bottles, my trouble had disappeared and I was feeling like a different man. To make my restoration sure, I took two more bottles of the New Discovery. It has now been several months since I stopped taking the Cooper medicine, and I have experienced no pain nor distress in that time, although I eat anything I wish.

"The medicine also relieved me of chronic constipation and piles, the latter having bothered me for twenty years. Cooper's New Discovery is a wonderful preparation, and I recommend it to any one suffering from stomach trouble."

Cooper's New Discovery is sold by all druggists everywhere.

+ SOCIETY +

ONE of the annual events of interest to the smart set in Richmond is the entertainment of the students of the Universities of North Carolina and Virginia on Thanksgiving Day. Countless small affairs are given, but the main arrangements are in charge of a committee of alumni appointed by the president of the chapter here, Dabney Crenshaw. The committee this fall is a most able one. Hiram M. Smith, Henry G. Elliott, E. Addison Jennings, Charles E. Whitlock, Jr., William R. Trigg, Julien Gunn, Landon C. Weir, with Robert N. Pollard as chairman, have been selected by Mr. Crenshaw.

Efforts are being made to make this year's succession of entertainments much the most brilliant and delightful they be present on this occasion.

The German is always opened with a delectable figure, and decorations in the college colors and flowers will make the ballroom a veritable realm of beauty.

Prominent Engagements.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Christian, of 315 South Third Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucy Newton, to James Ambler Johnston, formerly of Southwest Virginia, now of Richmond. The wedding, which will take place early in January, will be one of the most brilliant events of the midwinter season, on account of the prominence of the contracting parties.

Miss Christian has been a much admired member of Richmond society

Richmond; Miss Mary Rogers, of Roanoke; Miss Leticia Clarke and Gaylord Clarke, of Mobile, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Mittendorf, of Baltimore. Phillips-Boyd.

The marriage of Miss Virginia Nalle Boyd, of Richmond, and Asa Emory Phillips, of Washington, took place Saturday morning at the residence of the bride's father, James N. Boyd, 117 West Grace Street.

Mr. Phillips is a graduate of Lehigh University, and is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and Miss Boyd is identified with Richmond's exclusive social life.

The house was beautifully decorated in pink chrysanthemums and orchids, and immediately after the marriage ceremony a wedding breakfast was served.

Traveling Abroad.

Misses Hennigham and Josephine Elliott are traveling in Europe with their father, Tazewell Elliott. Just now they are in Paris, and later will tour Southern France and Italy. The Misses Elliott will not return to Richmond until late in January.

Brilliant Bridge Party.

A number of the leading society women in Richmond are interested in the bridge party to be given on Friday, November 12, at half-past 3 o'clock in the palm garden of the Jefferson Hotel by the members and officers of the Belle Harrison Memorial Circle of King's Daughters. The affair is to be one of the most brilliant entertainments given in Richmond this winter.

Mrs. Charles E. Whitlock, Mrs. Thomas Rutherford, Mrs. Cotesworth Pinckney, Mrs. Stuart Hume, and Mrs. Armistead Weirford are some of the ladies who will receive the guests. The tables are to be arranged in parties of four, and attractive prizes will be given at each table.

Decorations will be in ropes of smilax and banks of crimson roses. Invitations sent out have included the fashionable set of Richmond.

Woman's Club.

The following talented musicians will give a program of chamber music to-morrow (Monday) afternoon at half-past 4, under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Hoen; Madama Cotesworth, at the piano; Florence Dillard Hequemour, first violin; Miss Katharine Thurston, second violin; Dr. A. G. Hoen, viola, and E. A. Hoen, cello.

The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Smith Brokenbrough, Mrs. Lewis H. Blair, will pour coffee; Mrs. William Meade Clarke, Mrs. George Bryan, who will preside at the tea table, and Misses Evelyn Styles and Jean Fields, who will see that the guests are served.

Quarterly Meeting.

The quarterly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society (postponed last Friday) will be held Monday afternoon, November 8, at 4 o'clock, at which time Mrs. L. B. Tate, of Korea, will speak.

The most helpful talkers from the field. The women of all the Presbyterian Churches in the city are most cordially invited to attend.

Lent Drawing her sable robes so soon this season about the bright frocks of Miss Society, the dates for all the gowns have been moved up much earlier this winter than usual. The first Tuesday German will be danced in the Masonic Temple on December 7. The other dates are: December 21, January 2, January 15, February 1. The dances are always delightful functions, and always looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure.

Board Meeting.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Young Woman's Christian Association will be held on Tuesday morning, November 9, at 11 o'clock. At the Christian Association.

Dr. Russell Cecil will address the Young Woman's Christian Association at the usual vesper services at half-past 5 o'clock this afternoon, at 711

Madam Irene Corsets

New Models Shown This Week

Too much cannot be said of this Corset. The style, fit, graceful lines and workmanship combined produce comfort and exquisite beauty of form. One fitting is all that is required by our expert corsetiers. Corset Department and Fitting Room, third floor.

MRS. WILLIAM HODGES MANN, whose husband has lately been elected Governor of Virginia, as she appeared in her girlhood, spent here in Richmond, when she was among the beauties and belles that graced society at that time.

ever given. The Blum Theatre has been engaged for the evening, and plans are under consideration for a German, usually given by the young society girls, to be given this year by the alumni of the University of Virginia to the visiting students. Another interesting feature is that letters have been written to the presidents of the two colleges, Dr. Venable and Dr. Alderman, asking particularly that since her debut several winters ago, and both she and Mr. Johnston are descendants of some of the oldest and most representative families in Virginia.

Stump—Old.

Christ Church, Norfolk, was thronged with a fashionable audience Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, when the marriage of Miss Margaret Nash, daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. V. Old, to John Stone Stump, Jr., was celebrated.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. F. C. Steinhilber, rector of the church, and the bride, who entered with her father, by whom she was given away, looked very handsome in a Morris gown of soft white satin, trimmed with real lace; her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Alice Old, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was fully gowned in pink satin en train, with pearl embroidery, and her flowers were a sheaf of pink chrysanthemums. Little Misses Alice Webster and Louise Robinson were ribbon girls; they wore dainty, lacy frocks with wide pink sashes. Herbert Stump, of Washington, D. C., was best man, and the ushers were W. V. Old, Jr., Edward Henry, Joseph Bldgood, Isaac Smith and Edward Smith, of Norfolk, and Gaylord Clarke, of Mobile, Ala.

The church was elaborately decorated in palms, smilax and white flowers, and the chancel was ablaze with tapers. After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the old residence, to which only the out-of-town guests, near relatives and members of the bridal party were invited. Invitations to a large reception had been issued, but owing to the serious illness of the bride's mother had to be recalled. Mr. and Mrs. Stump left for a wedding journey, after which they will make their home in Greenville, N. C., where Mr. Stump is connected with the standard Oil Company. Some of the out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mrs. J. S. Stump, Harry and Robert Stump and Mrs. Goldsboro, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Ella Bluford, Miss Katherine Young and Miss Elizabeth Brander, of East Franklin Street. All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

Williams—Murray.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Miss Henrietta A. Murray, daughter of Judge Henry A. Murray, of New York City, to Charles Urquhart Williams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Williams, of "Strawberry Hill," Richmond. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's brother, Hugh A. Murray, in New York, at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, November 2.

The house was attractively decorated in Hessian palms, ropes of smilax and baskets of Bride roses. An orchestra screened by palms in the hall played during the afternoon.

Miss Mary E. Manning, of New York, attended Miss Murray as her maid of honor, and wore an embroidered gown of cloth of gold over pastel blue satin, with a large velvet hat and plumes to match. Her flowers were a shower of new golden chrysanthemums. Little Miss Paula Murray, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a dainty frock of white baby Irish lace, and carried a graceful basket of loose flowers.

John W. Atkinson, Jr., of this city, was the groom's best man, and the ushers included W. Brydon Tennan, Palmer Leigh, William Jeffries, H. Watkins Ellison, all of Richmond; Cecil Arthur and Adolph Schwartz, of New York.

The bride, who entered the drawing-room with her father, by whom she was given away, was handsomely gowned in ivory duchesse satin trimmed in old point lace that belonged to her mother. Her veil, of exquisite old rose point lace, is a duplicate of one made for the Queen of Italy, and was fastened with white and gold, and her bouquet was a shower of the same flowers. A brilliant reception, served by Delmonico, followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams are spending their honeymoon in the South, and upon their return will be at home in Richmond.

Mr. Williams is a prominent member of the Richmond bar and a popular clubman. The wedding was one of the social events of the season, and a number of handsome entertainments will be given the couple upon their return to Richmond, where the groom is widely related.

Entertained at Supper.

A beautifully appointed supper party was given last week by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Leigh, Jr., in their home, 504 West Franklin Street. The dining-room was artistically decorated in Killarney roses with a centerpiece of the same flowers on the table. Mrs. Leigh's guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bolling, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bolling, Mr. and Mrs. Cotesworth Pinckney, Miss Mary Lyons, Carter Branch, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pinckney, of Charleston, S. C.

In honor of Judge and Mrs. Ross. Among the number of beautiful entertainments tendered Judge and Mrs. Erskine M. Ross, of California, during their visit in Richmond, was a dinner party at which Miss Edna Branch was hostess. The table was decorated in turning to Virginia from the Villa Ada on Lake Maggiore, Italy, to spend several months at Castle Hill, her old home. Princess Troubetzkoy will spend a week in New York interviewing her publishers, who are bringing out several of her latest books in Christmas form.

Card Parties of the Week.

Thomas L. Moore entertained most delightfully at a beautifully appointed card party on Friday evening at half-past 8 o'clock in his magnificent home on West Franklin Street.

Among the smaller card parties of the past week was a very informal affair of two tables, at which Mrs. Jeanette Crump was hostess.

In Honor of Mrs. Carter.

Mrs. John I. Cofer, of Smithfield, Va., entertained most delightfully on Wednesday afternoon, November 2, between the hours of 4 and 6, in honor of her hostess, Mrs. Robert S. Carter, of Orange.

Some of those who called were: Mrs. S. A. Riddick, Mrs. Walter Stott, Mrs. Henry Sykes, Mrs. L. C. Brock, Mrs. George Whitley, Mrs. Ryland Chapman, Mrs. V. C. Batten, Mrs. Waverly Thomas, Miss Nannie Thomas, Mrs. W. C. Ames, Mrs. Harry Mitchell, Mrs. Eddie Cofer, Mrs. Emily B. Warner, Mrs. Jack Wilson, Mrs. F. R. Berryman, Mrs. C. F. ## The Pianola Piano

Uniting the Pianola and Piano in a Single Complete Instrument

The person who has become interested in the PIANOLA and contemplates its purchase may obtain it in any one of three forms:

First, there is the Cabinet Pianola, ready to attach to any piano, grand or upright. When hand playing is desired, it is the work of only a few moments to roll the cabinet away from the piano.

The second form is the Upright Pianola Piano. Here the Pianola is made an integral part of the piano itself, and the keyboard is not obscured, even when the instrument is being played with the music roll.

The last and greatest achievement is the combination of the Pianola with the Weber Small Parlor Grand. The graceful lines of the grand, and its deep, rich tones, are in no way affected by this union.
